

Application Form for the Joint Use/Research (First call for 2019 fiscal year) of the Joint Use/Research Center for “Earth and Planetary Materials Sciences”, Institute for Planetary Materials (IPM), Okayama University

DAY/MONTH/2019

Principal applicant

Name:

Affiliated institution and department:

Position:

*(Supervisor):

*When the principal applicant is a graduate/undergraduate student, the supervisor must be included as a collaborator.

Contact of affiliated institute: Address:

Phone:

E-mail:

Application category (Circle the corresponding item)

- | | |
|---------------------------------|---------------------------|
| 1. International Joint Research | 2. General Joint Research |
| 3. Joint Use of Facility | 4. Workshop |

Name of the research project or workshop

Japanese :

English :

New application or continued application (Circle the corresponding item)

New Continued

Name of the faculty member of IPM :

(Already consulted)

Must apply after consulting with a faculty member of IPM

List of collaborators (Please include the principle investigator. A faculty member of IPM must be included as a collaborator for joint research and workshop.)

	Name	Affiliated institute	Position or school year	E-mail	Travel expense (required or not)
1
2
3
4
5
6

Reason for application and expected outcome

(For application of a continued project, describe the achievement so far. The location, date, and expected participants must be described when it is a “workshop”)

Publication list related to the application (papers, presentations, awards, and patents)

Research Proposal

(Described in detail the research to be conducted in IPM)

List of equipment to be used

Preferred period of the research project

From (day/ month/ year) to(day/ month/ year), () days

Write all the schedule when it is multiple visits

Note

* When the applicant is a graduate student, permission from the supervisor is required. Also, the school year of the applicant must be written on the application form.

1. The application must be done after discussing about the research proposal and the period with an IPM faculty member of your preferred research division
2. The CV and the publication list of the principle applicant must be attached if it is an application for the first time.
3. A research report must be submitted to the general affairs of IPM as soon as the research period is finished.
4. When the space above is not sufficient for the required information, please use a separate sheet (any form) and attach it to this document.